"SHIP AHOY!"

Universal One-Reel Comedy

Featuring SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and BOBBY DUNN

FROM their attic room Slim and Bobby observe several girls clustered around a sailor-boy, bestowing much affection on him. Desirous of receiving some of this affection themselves, they go off in search of suitable naval attire. Bobby gets a sailor's outfit without any trouble, but Slim is forced to help himself to a uniform hanging in the back of a cleaning establishment.

Because he has the advantage of an officer's uniform, Slim is more successful with the ladies than Bobby and everything goes well for him until the officer whose suit was stolen gets on the trail. He comes to the house where the boys are trying to "make" the girl and Slim sees him first. He rushes upstairs and calls Bobby after him. Telling him that he has no chance with the girl and that he is going to let him wear the officer's uniform, Slim changes suits and Bobby goes down to face the wrath of the naval officer. After identifying his suit the officer calls a guard and has Bobby arrested. Slim comes down just about that time in the sailor's uniform and is taken away with Bobby, while the girl nestles in the arms of the regular sailor.
